Seven Members Enter BEPEX

Seven Helvetia members plan to enter one or more exhibits in BEPEX, according to an informal survey at the February meeting. They are Henry and Caroline Blum, Edward Hochuli, Walter Reimann, Harlan Stone, George Wettach and Benjamin Wood. All are urged to bring their displays to the March 16 meeting so the entire membership can view them. The seven exhibitors qualify Helvetia for the new competition among BEPEX clubs who have at least five individual exhibitors. The Fair Lawn Stamp Club will be the only other BEPEX club with at least five prospective exhibitors, it was reported last month. Helvetia members last month also assembled two frames of pages for the traditional BEPEX club competition. Helvetia has won this competition every year since 1967.
